Are you looking to upskill, retrain or want to pursue your dream career?

Do you need the flexibility to learn in your own environment?

Then Croydon College's online distance learning courses could be the right choice for you.

With COVID-19 resulting in many people facing unemployment or the need to reskill, Croydon College is able to support you to achieve your potential.

With qualifications from Level 1 up to Level 3, our e-learning platform allows you to access all the course materials you need online while also having support from our experienced tutors, and you can start the course at any time of year.

It doesn't matter what age you are or whether you are currently furloughed, unemployed or in employment you can access the huge range of courses available at the College, there are no specific entry requirements for the lower level courses and you may also be eligible for government funding, so could train for free.

What can you do with your qualification?

By gaining a new qualification you can open doors to a new career path, job promotion or further education and apprenticeships, with staff at Croydon College available to help you take that next step too.

Business Leadership and Management

Do you want an office job which allows you to reach your full potential and become a business leader or do you want to be able to push for that work promotion?

Then join one of our Business Leadership and Management courses providing you with training in anything from leadership skills to digital skills and IT provision.

Retail and Hospitality

Want a career in the retail and hospitality industry?

Then our courses can give you the training and experience you need, with our qualifications giving you the opportunity to learn about customer service, understanding retail operations and marketing.

Health and Social Care

Want a career in health and social care?

The health and social care sector has never been more important. If your passion is to help people then our range of qualifications can help you make that first step. With courses ranging from mental health, dementia, adult social care and nutrition and health there are ample opportunities for you to further your ambition.

Childcare and Education

Want a career in childcare and education?

If you would like to help support children and inspire young minds then you can join one of our childcare and education courses, with qualifications focused on behaviour, mental health, learning difficulties and more.

WHAT WILL TEACHING LOOK LIKE?

You will access your course via an online easy to access learning platform called EQUAL. You find all learning material and assessment feedback on here with 24/7 access allowing you to plan your own learning at a time and a place that suits you. You will work with an allocated tutor who will provide guidance and support and work with you to agree completion dates.

If you need additional learning support remotely, a member of our team will also be available to help online.

Fees

Our Level 1 and 2 online learning courses are free and you will be fee assessed before being enrolled on the course. To be eligible for government funding you need to meet the following criteria:

- Must be aged 19 and over as of 31/08/21
- If aged 19-23, you must hold a full Level 2 qualification or above (five GCSEs, grade A-C/9-4, two AS Levels, one A Level, NVQ Level 2, First Certificate or Principle of Learning Level 2).
- If aged 24+ no qualifications are required
- A resident in the UK for the last three years
- Not enrolled in any other distance learning course with us

Please note that if a learner withdraws before completing the course they may be charged a £100 admin fee.

Free Level 3 Qualifications for Adults living in London. We can provide learners 19+ with access to their first full Level 3 qualification for FREE, our dedicated team can discuss the criteria with you.

How to apply?

We advise that you only apply for one course using our online form and one of our staff will be in contact following your application to go through with you further what is required and to make sure you are enrolled into the right course for you.
