The College's Standing Orders makes the following provision for the attendance of non-members at meetings of the Croydon College Governing Body and its committees:

“4.7 Attendance as Observers at Meetings

If a non-member wishes to attend a Corporation or Standing Committee meeting as an observer, for a specific item listed on the Agenda, they shall first seek, through the Director of Governance, the agreement of the Chair of that meeting. This request should be received no fewer than five working days prior to the meeting.

Attendance is at the discretion of the relevant Chair in consultation with the Director of Governance.

The College may vary the terms of its Standing Orders at any time. Please consult the Director of Governance/Clerk in the first instance: governance@croydon.ac.uk
